

Before I Kill You, Mister Spy...

A Cheapass Card Game for 2-6 Players

Imagine, just once, luring the master spy into your evil lair and putting a bullet in his head.

Imagine resisting the temptation to gloat over your prize, to tell him your secret plans, to let him escape certain death and blow up your lair in the process.

Imagine winning.

Yeah, Right.

“Before I kill you, Mister Spy, I am going to tell you my entire life story, because I believe that you are the only man alive who would understand...”
