WEAPONS

NEW WEAPONS:

The following weapons are a supplement to page 13 of the Dungeonslayers basic rule book.

Elven bows and Dwarven axes are created by true masters of their craft, explaining the higher stats and very high price.

DETERMINING LOOT: MAGICAL WEAPONS

Magical weapons can be determined by using the three simple steps on the following tables. After determining a weapon category, the specific weapon is determined in the second step. The third step gives the weapon one to three magical enhancements.

The first enhancement is always a combat effect, giving a bonus to WB and Initiative and reducing the opponent's Defense. The second enhancement confers a talent and the third a spell effect.

STEP II: SPECIFIC WEAPON

D20	Ranged Weapon	D20	Bladed	D20	Blunt
1-2	Light Crossbow	1-2	Two-Handed Sword	1	Flail
3-4	Heavy Crossbow	3-6	Dagger	2-4	Hammer
5-9	Shortbow	7	Halberd	5	Quarterstaff*
10-14	Longbow	8	Great Axe	6	Club*
15	Elven bow	9-11	Broadsword	7-8	Morning Star
16	Sling	12-14	Shortsword	9	Brass Knuckles

20	Throwing dagger	18-19	Battle Axe	13-16	War Hammer
		20	Dwarven Axe	17-20	Mace

* does not break upon critical failure

STEP III: MAGICAL ABILITIES

D20	Magical Abilities
1-15	Combat Effect
16-19	As above + Talent Effect
20	As above + Spell Effect

D20	Combat Effect
1-16	+1 bonus (WB/INI/-Defense)
17-19	+2 bonus (WB/INI/-Defense)
20	+3 bonus (WB/INI/-Defense)

Talent Effects:

Are handled as if the wielder had learned the appropriate talent (ignoring any prerequisites and if the maximum level of the talent has been learned).

Spell Effects:

Releasing is a whole action (class and level independent). Roll Spellcasting/ Targeted Spells normally, including non spell-users (check value is minimum 10 if the PC's stats don't allow for better values).

Determining Weapon Value:

The seller would be lucky to even fetch half the price determined here, since a market for magical weapons is practically nonexistent. The nonmagical WB of a weapon is added to the combat effect and then multiplied by 200. If the weapon has a second (or third) magical effect, this result is further multiplied by 3 (or 4).

Ranged	Melee	Talent Effect
-	1-2	Brutal Strike
1-3	3-4	Tough-as-nails
4-6	-	Deadly Shot
7	5	Lucky Devil
8	6	Hero's Luck
-	7-8	Blademaster
-	9-11	Parry
-	12-13	Armor Training
9-11	-	Marksmanship
12-14	14	Fast Reflexes
15-17	15	Steadfast
-	16-17	Slayerstrike
18-20	18-20	Weapon Mastery

D20	Spell Effect
1	Greater Healing (touch with weapon)
2-3	Lightning (from weapon)
4	Firelance (from weapon)
5-6	Fireray (from weapon)
7-8	Healing Hands (touch with weapon)
9-12	Light (from weapon)
13	Arrow of Light (from weapon)
14-16	Magic Shield (wielder only)
17	Arrow of Darkness (from weapon)
18	Levitation (wielder only)
19-20	Terror (show weapon to opponent)

Spellcasters can use magical weapons with the spell effect as if it were a magical staff with the appropriate spell.

ARMOR

DETERMINING LOOT: MAGICAL ARMOR

Random magical armor can be generated in three quick steps using the following tables. A differentiation is made between plain magical armor, giving a bonus to Armor Value (AV), and Named Armor, giving
