KICKERS

Feel free to steal one of these options for a Scene to Establish. Think about what you want for your character!

Your character and someone else's root through a dumpster for something they accidentally threw away.

Your character and someone else's in the parking lot as a helicopter floodlight illuminates them.

Your character and someone else's in Muscle Logic, each pretending not to see or know the other.

Your character at work, but off the clock. Who is also at work, but off the clock?
