KICKERS

Feel free to steal one of these options for a Scene to Establish. Think about what you want for your character!

Your character and someone else's stumble across something upsetting on an evening walk. What is it and what do you do?

There's a town hall meeting, but the real problem is definitely not going to be discussed in public. What's going on and what's the cover story?

Your character and someone else's have a conversation about another character's behavior. What are they doing wrong?

Your character and someone else's have a vicious fight using only compliments.
