The Editor Says...

By now, many of you will be familiar with the Plastic Warriors conversions of Cyberpunk 2020 equipment to Shadowrun. This book is yet another installment in the series, and will probably be the last weapon-oriented one for the time being. One reason for this is that there are hardly any weapons left to convert, but equally important is that there are now so many guns for Shadowrun that it's getting, well, a bit boring.

You see, if you do too many weapons, most of them start to look the same. This is in a large part due to the limited number of game statistics that any given system has, and so after a while you simply run out of stats that will set one weapon apart from another. Just look at all the pistols in this book, and try to spot the ones that are nearly or completely identical stats-wise. Okay, so prices might vary a bit, but the actual game data is virtually the same for many weapons.

So why do I insist on bringing out this file anyway, if all it appears to do is add more of the same? Roleplaying reasons. With more choice, you can select things that suit your perception of a character. Not just guns, but any other stuff as well—"It's a Fuchi L-263 laser mike with a two-channel digital/analog noise filter" is far more interesting, roleplaying-wise, than going "It's a rating 3 laser microphone," even though that's exactly what the Fuchi is. For the same reason, it doesn't matter that the only real difference between an Armalite 44 and a Nomad .357 Magnum autoloader is in their weights. Your character may prefer the Armalite because of its clean lines, or because it's the gun used by the main character in his favorite cop show on the trid, or because it's the first gun he ever bought, or whatever motif you care to come up with.

For this reason, I think it's good to have a large variety of very similar pieces of equipment. So read through these pages, and pick a gun you feel is in keeping with what your character likes, or wants in a gun. There's 293 to choose from in this book alone.

— Gurth <gurth@xs4all.nl>

Some Notes

Type and Ranges: with ranged weapons, these two stats are used to indicate the type of ammunition and the range groups the weapon uses, respectively. This is because in Cyberpunk, weapons within a class do not all have the same ranges, and so for those with radically different ranges from Shadowrun equivalents make use of a different range group than they actually belong to. For example, the Militech M-31a1 (see page 27) is an assault rifle, but it fires submachine gun rounds. For all purposes such as which Firearms concentration to use, apply common sense: a weapon listed among shotguns, even though it fires heavy pistol ammo and has light pistol ranges, will likely be a shotgun. If this is somehow a hard call to make for the gamemaster, use the Ranges.

Rules references: a lot of entries in this book make reference to published Shadowrun rules. The most important ones are:

Caseless ammunition	page 77, Fields of Fire
Monofilament whips	page 103, Shadowrun, Second Edition
Rates of fire	page 81, Fields of Fire
Shock weapons	page 103, Shadowrun, Second Edition
Shotgun chokes	page 95, Shadowrun, Second Edition
Smoke	page 85, Fields of Fire
Supermachine guns	page 81, Fields of Fire
White phosphorus	page 86, Fields of Fire

Conversion guidelines: see the Chromebook Conversions, page 103.

Slamdance, Inc. Spawnblade

p.4

If used to stab normally, it does normal damage for a knife (i.e. (str)L). If a target has been hit successfully (he must have taken damage from the attack), the user may trigger the blade. This does an additional Light wound, which may not be resisted. Once opened, removing the knife requires a Biotech test with a Target Number 5. Any other means of removal, or if the Biotech roll is failed, causes another Light wound. Using the knife to stab while in its extended form makes its Damage Code (str–1)L. The knife, once triggered, can not be brought back into its original shape.

Arasaka "Nauseator" Riot-Control Device

p.6

This device affects an area as if it were a shotgun with a choke of 2. The device rolls 6 dice against a Target Number 4, everyone within 25 meters of the device must roll a Body(6) test (use natural Body, without cyberware modifiers). The number of successes rolled are compared; if the device has more, consult the left-hand table for the effects. Creatures with wide-band hearing get a +2 modifier to the Body Test Target Number. Targets equipped with hearing improvements also get modifiers to the Body test, per the right-hand table.

Net successes	Effects on target	Cyberware	Modifier
1	+2 penalty to all Target Numbers for 1D6 turns after leaving affected area	High Level Hearing	+2
2-3	+4 penalty to all Target Numbers, Quickness and Strength reduced by 1, all for 2D6 turns after leaving affected area	Low Level Hearing	+1

Kendachi Dragon

p.6

It costs one Complex Action to ignite this weapon, and in this action it may not be fired. In any following actions, it can be fired without problems. Turning it off costs a Simple Action. If the weapon is a smartgun controlled through a Smartlink, it still costs a Complex Action to turn on, but only a Free Action to turn off.

The Dragon uses any flammable liquid as its ammunition. Based on the fuel, the Damage Code may be adjusted (GM's discretion). Impact Armor is used to defend against fire, but use only half its rating (round down). The ranges for this weapon are: Short NA; Medium 0-1; Long 2-3; Extreme 4. This weapon has a Firesetting Rating of 6 (see page 72, Tech Specs, for details).

Every shot uses a number of power units equal to its Power Level; the power pack contains 30 units of power, so you could fire 2 shots at full damage (15M), or 10 shots at lowest damage (3M), or any combination you want: for instance, one shot at 10M, three shots at 4M, and one shot at 8M exactly empty the power pack. This weapon uses the Shock Weapons rules, p.103 of SRII, but does not use the normal taser ammunition. Instead, it fires a round that works on the same principle but is of heavy pistol caliber. These rounds can not be fired from other heavy pistols. It can also use normal heavy pistol ammo, but if this is done, roll 1D6. On a roll of 1 to 5, the round misfires and causes 9M damage to the firer (Ballistic armor is only half effective), which also destroys the pistol. When normal heavy pistol ammo is fired, the weapon has a base Damage Code of 9M, modified by the ammunition type. With its own shock ammo, it uses the listed Damage Code. The ammunition is listed in the Chromebook Conversions.

p.9

Use the Shotgun ranges for this weapon. When it is fired, the firer rolls a normal Firearms skill test against the range-determined Target Number. If it hits an electronic device, the weapon rolls 5 dice against the base Target Number for the range (4 for short, 5 for medium, etc.). The device rolls a number of dice equal to the M40's Target Number against a Target Number 5. If the M40 has more successes, the electronics are damaged or destroyed (GM's discretion). If the target is alive, the M40 delivers an attack, with the damage depending on the range to the target, in addition to the other listed effects (in all cases, Alpha and Beta-grade cyberware are allowed a damage resistance test, see p.98/99, Street Samurai Catalog). For cyberware damage, see pages 93 to 96 of the Street Samurai Catalog and pages 39 and 40 of Shadowtech.

The weapon has three modes: Target, Combat, and Overload. Switching between them costs a Simple Action (a Free Action for a smartgun). The damage done depends on the modes: 6L in Target mode, 7M in Combat mode, and 10M in Overload mode. The air reservoir is treated as a clip for changing purposes, the rounds are contained in a cylinder. The weapon can only use its own ammunition, described below.

Two models exist: the normal model has a five-shot cylinder, an under-barrel laser sight, and a 10-shot camera on the top mount (this camera takes a picture every time a shot is fired). The second model (the Mark 2) has a seven-shot cylinder, and an internal smartlink.

The electro-thermal ammo enhancement (see page 40) is already incorporated into this gun. There is a -1 target number at all ranges. Ammo costs 20¥ per box of 20, and is not interchangeable with that of other weapons. A battery for 50 shots is 10¥. A rating 1 gas vent is fitted to the barrel. By changing the grip (a Firearms B/R (4) test with a parts cost of 125¥), the Concealability can be increased to 4, but the -1 target number bonus is negated by this.

p.14

This weapon comes with an internal smartlink as standard. The weapon uses two magazines: one 25-round clip holding the bullets, and a 200-shot "fuel tank" holding the liquid propellant. It uses its own ammunition, and can not use any other weapon's ammunition. Furthermore, the only ammunition this weapon can fire is equal to Needle ammo (p.30 of the Neo-Anarchists' Guide to Real Life). The liquid propellant costs 30¥ to fill the magazine (i.e. .15¥ per shot), while the Needle ammo costs its normal price.

Militech AM-3 “Anti-Matter Rifle”

p.35

If the target is missed (i.e., no successes are rolled on the Gunnery skill test to fire this weapon), the firer must resist 6L Stun damage with his Body, using one-half Impact armor. If all ones are rolled on this test, the weapon is dropped.

If the firer is standing up during firing, he must roll a Body test, Target Number 6, to avoid being knocked over. If knocked over, the target is automatically missed, and the firer must resist 6M Stun, in addition to the 6L Stun for missing the target.

The AM-3 has a magnification 3 telescope sight (top mount), shock pads (stock mount), internal smartlink, and a gas vent rating 2 (barrel mount). It uses Missile Launcher ranges, though the weapon is an assault cannon.

'Borg Weapons

Unless otherwise noted, all 'borg weapons use cased ammunition.

These very large weapons can only be effectively used by characters equipped with at least one cyberlimb (preferably two), a gyromount, or a full body conversion (see the Chromebook Conversions and the Plastic Warriors Errata available from HTTP://WWW.XS4ALL.NL/~GURTH/PLASTIC.HTML).

For characters not equipped with any of this, apply the 'borg weapon recoil rules following directly below.

'BORG WEAPON RECOIL RULES

To use weapons designed for full 'borgs, a character must have a certain minimum Body Attribute Rating; how high this is can be calculated by using these rules.

The base Body Minimum is found by multiplying the weapon's Power Level by a factor that depends on the Damage Level: x.25 for Light, x.5 for Medium, x.1 for Serious, and x1.25 for Deadly. Then multiply this by any applicable factors from the Modifiers table, below. All multiply together, so don't add them up first.

For the rate of fire (ROF), only one applies. For example, a supermachine gun (like the Ingram SuperMach from Fields of Fire) is capable of semi-auto, burst fire, and full-auto fire. This weapon uses the "Minigun or SuperMG FA" modifier, since it is a supermachine gun capable of full-automatic fire, even though it might only be fired in BF mode. A supermachine gun only capable of burst fire uses the "FA or SuperMG BF" line, etc.

If the Body Minimum is greater than the firer's Body, add the difference between the two to the target number for firing the weapon. If the firer's Body is less than one-half the Body Minimum, he must resist (number of rounds fired x 2)L Stun damage every time he shoots the weapon.

'Borg Weapon Recoil Modifiers Table

Modifier	Multiply by
One-handed (pistols)	x2.0
Two-handed (some SMGs and shotguns)	x1.0
Two-handed and braced (most others)	x0.5
Railgun	x1.8
ROF (see explanation below)
SS or SA	x.75
BF	x1.0
FA or SuperMG BF	x1.5
Minigun or SuperMG FA	x2.0

Each cyberarm used to grip the weapon increases the firer's effective Body by +2 for the purposes of this calculation, as does a cybertorso. A gyromount adds one-third (round down) its rating to the firer's effective Body.

Chuck has a Body of 4 and one cyberarm. He wants to fire a Helix, which has a Damage Code of 10S. This gives it a Body Minimum of 10 (Power Level of 10, x 1 because of the Serious Damage Level). It's a two-handed weapon, not braced against the shoulder, for another x1.0, still keeping the target number at 10. The Minigun rate of fire multiplies it by 2.0, though, making it 20...

Chuck's cyberarm adds 2 to his effective Body, making it 6, so his target number modifier is $+(20 - 6) = +14$. Better have a high skill, Chuck...

For high-explosive, chemical (smoke/gas), white phosphorus, and flash grenades refer to page 48 of Fields of Fire. All the grenades listed here are available in aerodynamic and non-aerodynamic models.

Anti-tank grenades cut all range categories in half, and its damage is resisted with one-half Ballistic armor by a target hit directly. Anyone in the blast radius uses Impact armor to resist as against other explosions.

Flash-bang grenades give a +5 modifier to all target numbers due to the flash; subtract 1 per 5 meters distance from the explosion, and halve the modifier if the character has flare compensation.

Sonics grenades force all within 6 meters to roll a Willpower (6) test; add a +2 to all target numbers for (4 – target's successes) turns.

Flash Bomb: The base target number modification for all those looking in the direction of the flash is +4, reduced by 1 for every 5 meters distance from the point of ignition. Flare compensation reduces the modifier by 50% (round down).

HEP: one-half (rounded up) of the damage that remains after the target's Body test is Physical, the other half is Stun. One-half (round down) Ballistic armor is used against these grenades. They have no blast radius, and so only damage target that are hit directly.

Smoke/Tear Gas: Fills a 3 meters radius around the point of impact with Dense Smoke (p.89, SRII) or tear gas. Tear gas counts as Light Smoke for visibility purposes, and adds +4 to all target numbers of anyone inside it. If the eyes are shielded, reduce this modifier to +2. These are all standard Shadowrun grenade launcher rounds. High-velocity rounds are not available.

Bean Bag: uses Light Pistol ranges, and Impact armor defends against its damage. It can only hit a single target, does not scatter or have a minimum range, and the target number and threshold for determining knock-down (p.91, SRII) are doubled.

Chemical: see smoke grenade, p.48, Fields of Fire.

Flash-Bang: give a +5 modifier to all target numbers due to the flash; subtract 1 per 5 meters distance from the explosion, and halve the modifier if the character has flare compensation.

Flechette: this is not really a grenade, but more a flechette round fired from a grenade launcher. It uses the flechette ammo rules (p.93, SRII), but does not suffer from minimum range or scatter. It uses the shotgun spread rules, as if it had a non-adjustable choke of 10.

Grapnel: the propellant charge costs 10¥ and the grappling hook 50¥. For the line see page 42 of the Street Samurai Catalog (both normal and stealth lines can be used). The grappling hook must be muzzle-loaded, taking a Complex Action in combat. Ranges are halved, and the hook will do 5M Stun damage to anyone hit by it.

HE and HEDP: treat as standard offensive and defensive grenades, respectively (p.48, Fields of Fire).

HEP: one-half (rounded up) of the damage that remains after the target's Body test is Physical, the other half is Stun. One-half (round down) Ballistic armor is used against these grenades. They have no blast radius, and so only damage target that are hit directly. There is no scatter.

Net: treat as a small net gun (p.72, Street Samurai Catalog).

Splatshell: contains 20 balls, each of which can contain any sort of liquid. These are fired in a shotgun pattern with a choke of 5.

Dual-Purpose Rounds

p.44

Ballistic armor is only one-half (round up) effective, but the rounds do normal damage. If an unarmored target is hit and damage is done (i.e., the target does not remove all damage), an additional box of damage is taken by the target.

Electrothermal Ammo Enhancement

p.44

This modification adds a 100-shot battery inside the weapon (battery cost 150¥, availability 6/48 hrs, street index 1). Only weapons using cased ammo can use this modification, and only if the weapon fires at Single Shot or Semi Automatic mode. If a Burst Fire or Full Automatic weapon is rebuilt to ET, roll 1D6 every Combat Phase the weapon is fired (apply the Rule of Six if necessary). If the roll is less than, or equal to, the number of rounds fired in that Combat Phase, the gun explodes, exposing the firer to an attack by all remaining ammo (treat as a burst of the number of rounds left in the weapon).

Weapons with this modification have their Power level and all ranges increased by 50% (round up). Apply Power level modifiers (like the +1 from explosive rounds) to the new Power level. As an added bonus, the weapon is insulated from electrical shocks: any electrical attack on the weapon will not harm it. Against magical effects, the gun counts as a Highly Processed Object (target number 10 or higher).

Hollowpoints

p.44

These rounds increase the Damage Level by 1 (6M becomes 6S, and so on), but Ballistic armor gets +2 on its rating to defend against these.

Kendachi Fragmentation Flechettes

p.44

Treat these as Needle ammo (p.30, Neo-Anarchists' Guide to Real Life), not as flechette, and also give a +1 to the Power Level of the weapon. They can misfire in the same way as Explosive rounds (p.93, SRII).

Rubber Bullets

p.45

At ranges over 3 meters, the round does normal damage, but all damage is Stun (a 6M round becomes 6M Stun, etc.), and is resisted using Impact armor. At ranges up to 3 meters, one-half (round up) the damage is Physical, the other half is Stun.

Shotgun Ammunition

p.45

APFSDS: treat as APDS rounds (p.63, Street Samurai Catalog).

Flare: work like a Micro Flare (p.46, Street Samurai Catalog). Damage is 6M if fired against a living target. The flare also has a Firesetting Rating 5 (see p.72, Tech Specs).

Flash and Flash-Bang: Does no damage, but produces a flash on impact, similar to that of a Flash Pak (p.45, Street Samurai Catalog).

Flechette: see SRII p.93.

Gas: this round does no damage, but delivers a cloud of gas (2 meters radius from impact point). The type of gas must be chosen before purchase.

HE: causes 8S damage with a blast reduction of -16 per meter. If firing a burst, increase the damage as if this were a normal round, and divide the -16 blast reduction by the number of rounds in the burst (a 4-round burst does 12D and has a blast reduction of -4 per meter).

HEAT: does damage like HE rounds above, but a target that takes a direct hit has its armor rating reduced by half.

Non-Lethal: treat as stun rounds (p.95, SRII).

Slugs: treat as regular ammo.

Smoke: does no damage, but fills an area of 3 meters radius around the point of impact with Heavy Smoke (p.89, SRII).

Stingers: beyond 3 meters ranges, damage is Stun, as with Rubber Bullets (above). Up to 3 meters, use the normal Damage Code for the shotgun.

Stundart: causes 10S Stun damage using the shock weapon rules.

Thermite: fills the shotgun's choke pattern with burning particles using the white phosphorus rules.

Arrows

p.46

Target: standard arrow as per SRII and Street Samurai Catalog.

Broadhead: use one-half Impact armor to resist. The Damage Level is increased by 1.

Stun: damage is Stun.

Spinner: use one-half Impact armor to resist. The Power Level is increased by 2 and Damage Level by 1.

Warhead: can be fired from any bow or crossbow with a Strength Minimum of 4 or higher. Ranges are halved, except for heavy crossbows.

Urban Technologies Slasher

p.47

Only available for shotguns, MMGs, HMGs, and grenade launchers. The slugs are considered to have spread out right at the muzzle of the barrel, the length of the wire depending on the weapon type: shotgun 1 meter, MMG 2 meters, HMG and grenade launcher 2.5 meters. The round travels only 50 meters for grenade launchers and 10 meters for other weapons.

Determine a target number as normal for anyone in the path of the wire, adding a +2 modifier for everyone standing in front of each new target. The firer rolls only one Success Test, and the roll is compared to the target number for each target separately. Anyone in the path of the wires takes 11S damage (not staged for the firer's successes), using one-half (round down) Impact armor to resist.

Appendix: DMZ Stats

The weapon stats for Downtown Militarized Zone, the Shadowrun boardgame, have been compiled as follows:

Type: same as for Shadowrun. (MP) denotes Machine Pistol.

Ammo: for SS or SA-capable weapons, this is the number of rounds in the clip or magazine. For BF or FA-capable weapons, it is the clip size divided by 3, rounded to the nearest whole number. If the weapon is a minigun or supermachine gun, it is the clip size divided by 6.

Base Success Value: based on the average in DMZ (page 60), to which CP2020's Weapon Accuracy (WA, the first numerical stat in the weapon data in Cyberpunk) was added. The base values are:

Hold-Out	4	Shotgun	10
Light Pistol	6	SMG	7
Heavy Pistol	8	LMG	12
Assault Rifle	8	MMG	12
Sporting Rifle	12	HMG	14
Sniper Rifle	14	Assault Cannon	18

With modifiers as follows:

Burst-fire or full-automatic	+2	Minigun or Supermachine gun	+2*
Laser Sight	+1	Smartlink (I or II)	+2

*In addition to the +2 for a burst-fire or full-automatic weapon

Damage: from the table below. If a weapon can only fire one ammunition type, the modifiers for that have been added in already.

Hold-Out	1	Shotgun	4
Light Pistol	2	SMG	3
Heavy Pistol	3	LMG	4
Assault Rifle	3	MMG	5
Sporting Rifle	4	HMG	5
Sniper Rifle	4	Assault Cannon	6

With modifiers as follows:

Burst-fire or full-automatic	+1	Minigun or Supermachine gun	+1*
Electrothermal ammo enh.	+1

*In addition to the +1 for a burst-fire or full-automatic weapon

¹ Ranges are Short 25–50 dots, Medium 51–166 dots, Long 167–666 dots, Extreme 667–1,000 dots. The minimum range cannot be reduced, unlike that of grenade launchers. Mortar rounds scatter as for grenade launchers, and do not need a LOS to their target; however, add a +6 to the Target Value if no LOS can be established.

² Treat as Defensive Grenade.

³ Treat as Offensive Grenade.

⁴ Ranges are Short 10–175 dots, Medium 176–375 dots, Long 376–750 dots, Extreme 751–2,500 dots.

⁵ Ranges are Short 0–75 dots, Medium 76–250 dots, Long 251–500 dots, Extreme 501–1,000 dots.

² These grenades can only do damage to a single target.

³ Use the rules for flechette rounds (DMZ page 54).

⁴ One-half (round up) the damage is Physical, the other half is Stun. To apply this, roll for the starting box only once, and first cross off the physical damage, then put a slash in the remaining boxes.

⁵ When fired from a Light Pistol, the Accuracy Success Value is 6 and ranges as for a Light Pistol; when fired from a Heavy Pistol, the Accuracy Success Value is 10 and Shotgun ranges are used.
