Born of Indian parents, Eliza has lived her whole life in Denver. Ten years ago her parents died in a car crash.

Eliza now lives in a subway car deep in the tunnels under Denver. The car is equipped with all necessary amenities, from a shower to a trid hookup. She specializes in helping people across the CAS-Pueblo border. Not working for a specific organization, she sees herself as a freelancer. However she has a certain tendency to offer better conditions to customers associated with the Koshari.
