You find a bottomless hole in front of you, darkness pulsating within it. Do you dare peek inside?

DISCOVERY
ASTRAL

GOOD BOY

As you progress surrounded by a bleak poorly illuminated tunnel, something assaults you from behind, interrupting your ability to manipulate your awareness. You regain control and turn in horror, only to be greeted by a barrage of wet licks. It's Toby, your old dog! He died years ago, but it seems his soul has managed to find you!

The next attack that would bring you to 0 SP deals no damage as Toby shares his essence with you, shielding you from the blow. He dissolves into nothingness afterwards.

DISCOVERY
ASTRAL

GOOD MEMORY

As you drift along the streets of a pre-industrial European city, you hear a noise behind you. You turn expecting the worst, only to find a box that appears to have fallen from above. You open it and are immediately overwhelmed by a sensation of nostalgia and peace, like the feeling of your mother's hug after hurting yourself as a child, or a fun evening playing with friends on the playground. Your good memories will always accompany you.

Ignore the next Sanity loss you would suffer.

DISCOVERY

LOST KNOWLEDGE

You find your consciousness in a retro-futuristic library. The future-dream of someone from the 1920's. You walk down halls filled with shelves displaying novelty miniature vinyls and to your surprise several of them actually appear to contain information of value. Now, if only you could figure out how to use them...

Perform an Astral Knowledge check. If you pass, you find a weird, vertical record player. Once you manage to insert the discs, their contents are psychically projected into your mind. Acquire one Grimoire, but to exchange it for goods at the Omphalos you must spend one day transcribing its contents.

ASTRAL

RING OF NEGATION

You stand inside a completely black room with neither walls nor ceiling, only infinite blackness. As you progress through this disorienting place, you hear a metallic 'cling' from several feet ahead. You walk forward through more darkness, and find a silver ring, still bouncing on the floor as if someone had just thrown it from a high place. After a moment of hesitation, you pick it up and slide it onto your finger. The darkness around you seems to collapse, giving way to a wide, featureless road. You feel the ring has taken something from you, though.

For the remainder of the session any barrier automatically collapses at the behest of the ring, but you cannot perform critical successes.

DISCOVERY
ASTRAL

RITUAL ECHO

You find yourself in a section of the Shadow where it would seem a great ritual just took place. You sense the Vril in the area, so thick you can almost touch it, and the lingering essence of the spirit that was just summoned into the physical plane.

Perform an INT test. If you pass, gain earn 10 Ritual experience points.

DISCOVERY
ASTRAL

SOUL SHARD

Your being floats within a desert, its blue sand eerily still, even as you feel the wind blowing against you. You progress for what seems like hours until you see something shimmering on the sand. What is that?

You approach the shimmering spot, only to find an enormous shard of glass. Perform an Astral Knowledge check. If you pass, you realize it's a piece of your own soul! But how did it get here? If your SP drops to 0 during this session, you will not suffer a stat loss.

ASTRAL

SPIRIT SHROUD

This place looks like a tailor's workshop. You see colorful pieces of cloth spread all over the place, and mannequins wearing clothes in different stages of completion and in all styles imaginable. One in particular captures your eye: a silken, nearly transparent headscarf, shimmering with a neverending pattern of colors and shapes.

If you don the headscarf, skip the next enemy encounter. The scarf mysteriously dissolves at the end of this session.

DISCOVERY
ASTRAL

THE ABYSS

You are within a tight, poorly illuminated corridor that spirals down, and you lose track of how long you've been there. Little by little you start to lose yourself, only coming to when you run away from nightmarish visions of pain and suffering, living beings hanging from meat hooks while screaming in muffled agony, the breaking of bones as loud as a thunderstorm. How did you get here, and where's the exit? After what feels like days, you find a path that splits in two; you know that one will take you to the surface, but which one is it?

Roll a D6: 1-3 you choose the correct pathway and free yourself, but not without losing D20 Sanity in the process. 4-6 you choose the wrong pathway and become irremediably lost until, after an immeasurable journey you regain consciousness, your mind scarred for life. Reduce your Sanity Maximum by 10, permanently.

ASTRAL

THE CROWN

You enter a room that looks like a medieval throne room, the walls lined with ancient full sets of armor and hanging banners decorated with complex heraldry. You move towards the end of the room, where you find a golden crown resting on a sumptuous throne. Should you take it?

If you take the crown, it seems to melt into you, leaving no trace. For the rest of the session, increase all Offensive skills by +10 while facing Angels or Demons.

DISCOVERY
ASTRAL

THE FOUNTAIN

In front of you stands the most exquisite fountain you have ever seen, with marvelous nymphs and undines sculpted all around it, their features hypnotically real. Water sprouts up and flows down again, as if it has life unto itself. But then...is that actual water?

If you pass an INT test you realize that the water is, in fact, pure Vril. Recover 50 VP.

DISCOVERY
ASTRAL

THE MAGISTER

A tall figure stands in the corner of a room, eerily immobile. It's dressed as an ancient roman senator, with a white toga wrapped around it and a pair of sandals on its feet. As you approach, it suddenly acknowledges you, smiling. "Titus, is that you?" it asks, confusion visible on its face.

Perform a Persuasion check. If you pass, you manage to convince this being that you are its apprentice Titus, and it teaches you an Astral spell of your choice.

DISCOVERY

THE PICTURE BOX

The landscape shifts to predominantly gray colors as ash begins falling from the sky. Everything around you is completely devastated and ruined. It's not long before you find yourself in front of the last standing building in the area: a small, grey house with a halfdestroyed roof. Inside, you find the skeleton of a typical household: a dining room, furniture, family pictures, all covered by a thin layer of ash and dust. Something shiny on a shelf attracts your attention. It's a small tin box. You open it and are initially shocked to see that it's filled with pictures of you! Shuffling through a few, you realize it's a collection of your most traumatic experiences in life, frozen forever as photographs. Horrible, repressed memories resurface, leaving you shaking and vulnerable as waves of emotional agony hit you one after another.

Roll on the Trauma table. Any result that refers to the "next mission" is applied to your current session instead.

DISCOVERY
ASTRAL

THE RECORD PLAYER

A subtle melody fills the air, simultaneously invading you with nostalgia and adrenaline. It sounds like a mashup of every song you've loved in your life, but it somehow works. You follow the music through the corridors of an abandoned hotel until reaching a room decorated in the style of the 60's. You see that the music is coming from an old vinyl record player, but as you approach it, the volume gets higher and higher, reaching an unbearable volume. You rush towards the player to make it stop, lifting the needle from the record, but as you do you, the needle somehow manages to pierce your finger! The music stops, but you suddenly feel very weakened.

Lose D20 SP.

DISCOVERY
ASTRAL

THE SPHERE

You walk within a grotto full of underground rivers, and come across what you can only describe as a conscious sphere of oil. As you look at it, it shifts and changes, somehow reacting to your presence. You are unable to find a pattern to its unsettling movements, and as interesting as this is, you decide to move along. The second you turn your back, you see out of the corner of your eye an oily formless appendage shoot out of it, stabbing you before you can react. You feel your Vril being drained from you, but there's nothing you can do!

Lose 20 VP as the sphere takes what it wants, before dissolving into the ground.

DISCOVERY

THORNS

Your progress gives the impression of slowing as you move through an archetypal swamp filled with things older than time itself. Through the haze, you hear the noise of something rushing towards you. What is that?

Perform an Astral Knowledge check. If you pass, you recognize the sound of living vines just in time, narrowly avoiding their thorny embrace. If you fail, lose D20 SP as the thorns tear into your essence.

DISCOVERY
ASTRAL

TRAUMATIC REALIZATION

The surroundings shift to resemble the bedroom of a young child. Toys and children's books fill the colorful shelves, and you can't help but feel like all this is extremely familiar to you. It doesn't resemble how you grew up but there is some deeper link, a link to a kind of shared human childhood, to the idea of safety and parental love. Suddenly, inside a beautifully carved cradle, among brightly colored blankets you see the lifeless body of an infant, its skin gray and its eyes black.

You cannot shake the deeply personal connection you feel to this place, and the horror of memories not entirely your own eat away at your mind. Pass a WIL test or lose D10 Sanity.

WATERFALL

As you progress, the area slowly transforms into a bucolic albeit strange garden, with bizarre-looking vegetation and sculptures surrounding you. A few more steps take you to what looks like a waterfall, but you can't see where the water is pouring from. Its crystalline flecks of light and relaxing sound pull you closer, soothing your soul.

If you take a sip of water, recover D20 SP. If you instead just relax and enjoy a moment of peace, recover D20 Sanity.

The victor simply moves away into the mist, leaving you alone.

You fall to your knees as the creature creates a noise that fills the entire Astral plane, an unintelligible boom that communicates a single thought directly into your head, "OUT".

You are violently ejected from the Astral, immediately awakening on the Physical plane.

EVENT
ASTRAL

GRUESOME DISCOVERY

The stench of death assaults your senses as you enter this room. The butchered remains of several people lay all around you.

Perform a WIL test. If you fail, lose 10 Sanity. If you were on a mission to find someone, you just did; if it was a rescue mission, you failed. If it was an assassination mission, someone completed it and that's all your contacts care about.

DISCOVERY
SEWERS & CITY TUNNELS

HIDDEN STASH

As you enter the room, you notice some markings on the floor, as if the big shelf at the back has been moved quite often. Is there anything behind it?

Perform a Perception check. If you pass, you find a hidden safe in a secret panel behind the shelf. Perform a Lock Picking check. If you pass, you open the safe and roll on the Valuables table. If you fail, you activated a trap! Pass a DEX test or gain the Poisoned condition.

DISCOVERY

HOMUNCULUS

You pass through into some kind of alchemy lab. The walls are covered with diagrams of the Astral anatomy of humans and other beings, and the table is covered with roughly humanoid chunks of clay. Is there anything of interest?

Perform an INT test. If you pass, you puzzle together the many notes and diagrams glued to the walls and scribbled on the sides of books. There are instructions here for the creation of a homunculus, but of a unique kind. This is designed to assist its creator while in the Astral. If you spend 50 VP now to quickly assemble one, the next time you visit the Astral you will have assistance during combat. Use the Vestige enemy profile for the homunculus.

A figure lies in the corner of this room, in a pool of their own blood. When you approach, you see that this person is still alive! He motions for you to come closer, desperately whispers in your ear, then collapses, dead.

Perform an Occult Knowledge check. If you pass, next time you find part of a ritual you find the full ritual instead. If you fail, lose 10 Sanity as the horror described by the man shakes you to the core.

At the back of the room you find a small table that has a dusty journal on it. It seems to tell a tale of travels in the desert.

Perform an INT (-2) test. If you pass, earn 5 Occult Knowledge points and recover 5 Sanity as the world makes more sense to you. If you fail, lose 20 Sanity as you fail to understand the insane ramblings scrawled into the pages of the journal.

Among beer bottles, spent candles and cigarette butts, there's a small pile of books. Probably worth checking these out.

Perform a Perception check. If you pass, you find a valuable grimoire sewn between the covers of a children's book. Acquire one Grimoire.

DISCOVERY

PRISONER

This room is filled with cages. Almost all are empty, but you see a figure kneeling inside one of them. As you enter he immediately sits up and looks at you, "You don't look like the other guys, have you come to help me? Please, get me out of here!"

If you ignore the man, earn 5 Chaos points. To free him, pass a Lock Picking check. Once you release the man, gain 5 Order points and perform a CHA check. If you pass, he thanks you and runs towards the exit, but if you fail he suddenly attacks while yelling he won't be tricked! Create an NPC (page 140) and begin combat.

DISCOVERY
SEWERS & CITY TUNNELS

RARE OPPORTUNITY

The only thing of note in this room is a woman, who appears to be sitting in a deep meditation. What will you do?

You may choose to simply walk away and ignore the woman. If you interrupt her, create an NPC profile (page 140), and perform a Persuasion check. If you pass, she tells you about who you may encounter in this place. For the next two encounters, you always catch your enemies by surprise. If you instead kill her while she is meditating, earn 10 Chaos points.

DISCOVERY
SEWERS & CITY TUNNELS

Sigils and arcane symbols are drawn everywhere, and the floor of this room is covered in half burned candles and burnt offerings. Someone was performing a summoning here.

Perform either an Occult Knowledge or Magical Liturgy check. If you pass, learn the sigil of a spirit (roll on the Spirit table). If you fail, lose D10 Sanity as the unsettling symbols disturb you more than you would like to admit.

Rows of lifeless half-naked bodies hang from savage looking hooks; the stench of death is so strong that you can barely breathe. With your head spinning, about to rush to the nearest exit, the thought crosses your mind: should you leave them like this?

If you decide to do something about the gruesome scene, you unhook the corpses, line them up on the ground and cover them as much as you can. Gain 10 Order points, but lose D20 Sanity. If you ignore the gratuitous display of violence, you leave without a care for the bodies or a desire to stay there any longer. Gain 10 Chaos points and lose D6 Sanity nonetheless.

Perform a DEX test. If you fail, debris falls from above dealing D20 HP damage. Directly after, you hear explosions in the nearby rooms; randomly determine D4 unexplored rooms that are destroyed.

EVENT

Perform a DEX test. If you fail, gain the Burning condition as a pot of home-made napalm pours over you.

EVENT
SEWERS & CITY TUNNELS

FLASH FLOOD

A sudden roar in the distance is all the warning you get before water comes rushing through the tunnels!

Perform a DEX test. If you fail, you are not quick enough to avoid getting dragged down part of the tunnel, and in the struggle to stay afloat you drop your main weapon!

EVENT
SEWERS & CITY TUNNELS

FLOODED

The area in front of you is completely flooded. To proceed, you will need to get into the cold, oily black water.

Perform a DEX test. If you pass, you are able to swim across the dark water despite the cold. If you fail, your legs begin to cramp and you start to sink. After a few seconds of panic you manage to pull yourself out, but lose D10 HP. Each time you cross back through this area, roll a DEX test.

EVENT
SEWERS & CITY TUNNELS

HOLE IN THE GROUND

Right after crossing the threshold, you are forced to stop suddenly due to a deep hole being where the floor should be. How will you get around?

To climb around it, perform a STR test. To jump over it, perform a DEX test. If you fail, you fall down the hole, losing D20 HP. Climbing out requires passing a DEX test, and each failed attempt takes another D6 HP.

EVENT
SEWERS & CITY TUNNELS

INTERROGATION

You behold a gruesome scene: a woman is being waterboarded by a man repeatedly asking the same question: "Where is it?!" Do you intervene?

If you attempt to pass by unnoticed, perform a Sneaking check and earn 5 Chaos points. If you fail, the man attacks you. Use the Hunter stat block. If you confront the Hunter, earn 5 Order points as he immediately attacks. After combat, if you attempt to get the woman to divulge the location of her stash, perform a Persuasion check. If you succeed, she tells you about the hidden stash in return for release, granting a roll on the Valuables table. If you fail but still want to know what she is hiding, you may continue the interrogation yourself. Lose 5 Sanity, earn 10 Chaos points and perform a WIL test. If you pass, you learn about her hidden stash earning a roll on the Valuables table.

NEGOTIATION

You rush into the next room, only to be greeted by a pistol's barrel. "Hello, friend," says the person holding it, "What have you got there?"

Create an NPC (page 140), who is demanding that you give them an item in your possession. You may give them an item, attack them, pay them off for 100ø, or perform a Persuasion check to convince them you don't have anything of value. If you can't do any of the above, they attack.

EVENT
SEWERS & CITY TUNNELS

OLD CAMP

There are heaps of old clothes and camping supplies all over this room; it appears someone was camping here on a semi-permanent basis, but it all seems abandoned now.

Perform an INT test. If you pass, perform a Perception check for a roll on the Valuables table. If you fail, take D20 damage as you step on a booby trap, causing a rudimentary but effective trap to stab you in the leg.

EVENT
SEWERS & CITY TUNNELS

OMINOUS PRESENCE

Your vision blurs when you enter this room, as your trained eyes begin to see this area's psychic energies pulsating around you.

Perform an Occult Knowledge test. If you pass, gain 2 points in Occult Knowledge as you connect previously acquired information with this experience, and realize this was a ritual chamber that hasn't been cleansed of energies. If you fail, all skills are reduced by -10 for this mission, as the uncomfortable sensation sticks to you.

EVENT

PSYCHIC RESONANCE

Something's not right here... What starts as a buzzing in your ears quickly becomes a deafening pounding that shakes your very core.

Perform a WIL test. If you pass, recover 10 Sanity as you calm your mind. If you fail, lose D10 Sanity and D10 HP from the psychic assault.

EVENT
SEWERS & CITY TUNNELS

RANDOM ENCOUNTER

You cross the threshold and come face to face with a startled person! Judging by their guilty expression, they likely shouldn't be here either.

Create a profile for this NPC (page 140). If you attempt to reason with them, perform a Persuasion check. If you pass, they will leave, looking nervously over their shoulder. If you fail they suspect a trap, and attack you. If you forgo negotiation and attack directly, roll for Initiative and gain 5 Chaos points.

EVENT
SEWERS & CITY TUNNELS

RATS

As you move through the tunnels, you hear something unusual: a faint scratching and tapping, coming in your direction. Before you have time to react, you are surrounded by rats!

Perform a STR test. If you pass, you manage to kick and stomp away the swarm around you. If you fail, you lose D10 HP from all the biting and scratching.

THERE ARE TOO MANY

Just as you are about to turn a corner, you hear a group of voices and steps coming in your direction. You need to find a place to hide right now!

Perform a Sneaking check. If you pass, you find a corner and barely avoid detection. If you fail you must discard a piece of gear, throwing it in the other direction as a distraction. If you have no equipment to throw, they discover you and beat you to death.

EVENT
SEWERS & CITY TUNNELS

VRIL DEAD ZONE

The air in this area feels thick in your mouth and lungs. You fall to your knees, panting as if you have just run a marathon.

Lose D20 VP each time you enter this Location.

EVENT
SEWERS & CITY TUNNELS

WHO ARE YOU?

The person sitting in this room sees you before you see them. They don't seem threatening, but it's evident they don't know what to make of you.
