Foreword

This title seeks to address a couple of subjects, firstly that of inbred bloodlines within the creepy old gothic sense, those families that once bred with each other and as a result have a genetic family trait of their incestuous pasts, and those of the cinematic (and legendary) inbred isolated mutant cannibal insane variety. Both of these archetypes can be created with this booklet.

As a rule of thumb, I'd advise that for the family trait (be it for a noble house, or Addams family type) roll on the chart 1-2 times, then apply to each family member. Then roll a D6 (1-2. Mild form, 3-4. Moderate form, 5-6. Severe form.) to see how bad the trait is in that character.

For the mutant Hillbilly NPCs or Characters, Roll once on the chart to determine the main family trait (applying the D6 severity table as above) then, Roll D4 for each family member to determine additional abnormalities for each person. Use the above severity D6 roll to determine the level of symptom for each trait, but add a +1 modifier to the roll.

These are just suggestions, you are free to use this information as you desire, I hope you have fun trying out some combinations!
