Allegiances by sector from (I forget the source) as assigned by me:

Far Frontiers Bv,Dh,Fs,Hc,Ls,Na,Pr,Sc,Td,Ug,Za,Zc,Zf,Zm,Zp

I have yet to do this for the post second survey (ie. Rebellion) data since it is by definition incomplete and changing.

Any allegiance code enclosed in parentheses and with question mark indicates that I have some question as to the validity. This is mostly because I can not recall all of the sources (and their official status). Any sector names in parentheses indicate that the government apparently overlaps other sector(s) but they are not published. In cases where an allegiance overlaps only a single sector border, I have tried to show both sector names. For allegiances which enter more than two sectors, I have used the sector name which has the greatest extent of the state. Due to my posting of credits/sources after the sector, I have restricted all multi-sector listings to the single greatest extent of the state.

I have put together a sector listing of the Spinward Marches for the Regency team (under Mike Mikesh) and had provided the base-line listing for the New Era version yet to be completed. I have included all of those allegiance codes in this list as well.

I have completed naming of all of the states in the regions labeled "Mixed Client States" and "Scattered Client States", as well as a couple of states that were not on the original GDW 1981 map. Work proceeds.

More codes probably exist. I'll try to keep this updated, so pass on your comments!

++ =====

++" The text is from the original document in the GENie RT library, which

++# shows to have been uploaded by LSP.MEYERS, but I have been unable to ++$ find out who had originally created this list. I have made so many ++% format revisions, I now consider the list to be mine. I have tried to ++& track sources when known. The Far Frontiers list has not been published
++' to my knowledge, so duplicates from there are less of a concern. I had ++(decided to put together a list so that it would be possible to look up
++) what was published and maybe minimize further duplication. A '' in ++ column 3 means the allegiance code is duplicated from elsewhere. I have +++ laid out this file so a sort will group allegiance codes together.
+- I have merged the S&A/V&V allegiance codes with the Atlas/Imperium
+. section at the beginning of the document, as I did not think it was +/ appropriate for a separate section like the treatment of V&V Vargr
+0 allegiance codes. Perhaps another all Aslan S&A section will be
+1 appropriate at a later date. I have added the sections for Factions
+2 of the Rebellion, Hard Times states/regions, codes used (so far) in the
+3 New Era, and those which have been printed (so far) in The Traveller
+4 Chronicle (TTC). Thanks for the on-line response I have received from +5 HIWG'rs.
