Most of those units are in cantonment or in disputed area.

Most of those units use French name due to their past.

FLQ Battalion means (Front de Liberation du Quebec or Liberation Front of Quebec) and are very low on training. They are constituted from policemen or deserters or French fanatics.

Communication in Quebec Province are in bad shape and travel is very risky. A lot of deserters attack convoys of Canadians units and Quebec units.

Remembers Quebec is declared independent from Canada and is at war with Canadian units and some US units allied to the government of Canada.

All of those units are low on ammo and low on supplies and infiltrate buy spy from Canada.

Central Command in Quebec territories

Those units are french speaking units or english speaking units from the Quebec Province or from different place in Canada. They are send in Quebec to stop the movement of independence of Quebec. (FED) means battalion of conscript loyal to Canada, most of them are french speaking. They are very low on training. Most of them have taken back their original name from 1867.
